I.D. REQUIREMENTS

- Your street address and date of birth must be verified by an acceptable form(s) of identification
- More than one form of identification may be used to verify your residency and date of birth
- PO boxes do not establish residency and CANNOT be accepted

Acceptable forms of identification with residential addresses are:

- Valid driver's license
- Valid state identification card
- Valid federally issued identification card:
  (1) Passport (2) Agency identification card
- Valid tribal government issued identification card
- Valid student identification card
- Valid United States military identification card
- Utility bill dated within 30 days prior to election day with your name and residential address
- Change of address verification letter from the US Postal Service

If you are not able to verify your residency and date of birth by the forms of identification listed above, you still have the right to vote if:

- An election poll worker is able to vouch for your identity and residence.
- You complete a Voter's Affidavit on which you certify, under oath, your identity and that you are a resident within this precinct.

Voice Your VOTE
NORTH DAKOTA VOICES COUNT
Secretary of State Elections Division

Updated September 2012